

Solidarity and Rights: The Euston Manifesto one year on

30 May 2007

School of Oriental and African Studies

University of London—Khalili Lecture Theatre, Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London. WC1H 0XG

in association with the SOAS Centre for Jewish Studies

Norman Geras, University of Manchester:
Deficits of International Law

Shalom Lappin, King's College London:
Multiculturalism and Democracy

Fred Halliday, London School of Economics:
Solidarities Simple and Complex

Eve Garrard, Keele University:
The Academic Boycott: Justifications, Objections, Explanations

Michael Walzer, IAS, Princeton:
Terrorism and Just War

The meeting will run from 2.00pm until 9.30pm. The final speaker will be Michael Walzer. Each session will begin with the presentation of a short paper and be followed by open (chaired) discussion.

If you would like a ticket, please send an email to: conference@eustonmanifesto.org

Tickets are £5.50 (plus a donation at your discretion).

You can pay by PayPal or by cheque made payable to 'The Euston Manifesto Group'.

eustonmanifesto.org